

Community Builder Judging Sheet

The community builder's book is a written document that explains the community service activities that the club did through out the 4-H. The community builder's book should include a written description of the activity, the goal of the activity, how many members attended and how many community people benefited from the activity. This book should include photos with captions, and names of the people in the picture. The book should also explain what the members learned from the activity.
